The deceased was a man about 53 years of age. He has a wife, and child to years old, residing at Ardmore. Family difficulties separated the couple and it seems that he took the matter extremely hard to heart. A letter from his little girl told how much she thought of her papa, how lonesome she was and that she wished mama would let her go and see her papa. But the little one's hopes were blasted, for the letter lay on a dresser and beside it the remains of the cherished father in the cold embrace of death.

The remains were taken to Chadron

Wednesday noon where they will be buried in the commetery alongside those of other members of the family.

A Commendable Ordinance.

The city council passed an ordinance at its last session which is of vital interest to parents and their children. It is the enforcings of a decree prohibiting children from loitering about the streets after dark. The hours as embraced in the ordinance are from 7 o'clock p. m. from the first day of October to the first day of April, and during the summer season from 8 o'clock p. m. from the first day of October. The nightwatch will ring the fire bell at the hours specified, when every child under the signals mentioned to section one of this ordinance shall be due notice to their respective hours.

Sec. 3. Any child under the age of 16 years to hear, lottler or plant the first day of April and the first day of April of each year, and the first day of April and the first hours specified, when every child under the age of 16 years the age of 16 years must retire from the streets.

Street walking by young girls and unusual hours for boys at tender age is the cause of more human destruction than can ever be told. "As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined." There is no intention to take the liberties from the children, but on the other hand to protect them that they may become worthy citizens; and to this end let every citizen of Alliance unite with the authorities in bringing about the also ok and ok desired result.
